The Planning and Zoning Commission met and approved construction of 2 cell towers, one in Lockport and one in Port Royal. There are currently 3 conditional uses and 1 variance for the Board of Adjustments.

Judge Brent stated that the law regarding cell tower construction is different usually allowing them regardless of the Planning and Zoning Commission and Fiscal Court. The hearings allow individuals to be heard, but the laws are such that even if the towers are voted down, they will still be built under most circumstances.

Required training for the Planning and Zoning Commission and the Board Adjustments was held on March 16 in the County for all members. At that time, Mike Ray was recognized for 32 years of serving as Commissioner. He has also performed many other valuable roles for the County during this time.

RE: 2018/19 JAIL BUDGET – 1ST READING

Judge Brent explained the proposed Jail Budget to the Court. At this time, the budget includes a raise of 40 cents per hour for the deputy jailers; however if the legislature does not act on the retirement issue, it may have to be amended. The contracts for housing inmates remain about the same. Based on recent expenditures, the amount for medical items has been decreased. Although the Jailer has requested and needs a van, that does not appear feasible this year. The Jail Budget of $642,300 is approximately 10 percent of the County's total budget.

Upon motion by Esq. Bates and second by Esq. Beasley, it is ordered by the Court to approve the 1st Reading of the Henry County Jail Budget.
